

U.S. September 2025 Non-Farm Payrolls Employment Data Release Notice (Latest)

Dear Valued Clients,

According to the latest schedule published on the official website of the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, the September Non-Farm Payrolls report which was delayed due to the government shutdown will be released on Thursday, November 20, at 21:30 Beijing time. The previous figure was 22,000, and the forecast figure is 50,000.

During the release of important data or news, particularly from 30 minutes before to 15 minutes after the announcement, the market usually experiences higher volatility and reduced liquidity. To enhance your trading security, we will make the following temporary adjustments based on the actual market conditions:

1. Pending Order Distance Adjustment:

- Gold (XAU/USD): Minimum 1,500 points from the current market price
- Silver (XAG/USD): Minimum 2,000 points from the current market price

2. Widened Spreads:

- Gold/Silver spreads may widen to 200 points or more

Important Reminders:

1. Significant price fluctuations may occur during the data release. Please manage your positions carefully and set appropriate stop-loss and take-profit levels to mitigate risk.
2. Our platform operates under a market execution model. In a volatile market, slippage may occur, which can either be favorable or unfavorable to you.
3. To avoid potential delay in deposits during peak times, we recommend making deposits to your "Upway Wallet" beforehand to ensure smooth transactions.
